The Golf Clubs

1. Ashburnham Golf Club

Established in 1894, this 6910 yard Championship Links course has staged numerous R&A, Welsh PGA and International Tournaments. Ashburnham is proud of the tradition of Championship golf held on the course whilst at the same time welcomes all golfers to share in the experience of a challenging Links course.

2. Machynys Peninsula Golf Club & Spa

Wales' only Nicklaus Design course. A modern Links style layout, overlooking Carmarthen Bay and the Gower Peninsula. Home of the 'Wales Ladies Championship of Europe' Tour event, this 7100 yard, par 72 R&A Championship venue has already earned itself an enviable reputation as the 'UK and Ireland's finest new course' as voted by renowned golf publication 'Golf World'.

3. Pennard Golf Club

Located 8 miles west of Swansea on the Gower Peninsula, an area of outstanding natural beauty. The holes are routed over classically undulating and tumbling linksland, full of hummocks, hillocks and hollows and pocketed with dunes large and small; in summary, exactly what we might hope to find beside the shore. Yet this exceptional terrain is not beside the shore - it is two hundred feet above it. No wonder Pennard has been called "the links in the sky."

4. Pyle & Kenfig Golf Club

Affectionately known as 'P&K' with its lofty sand dunes hugging the South Wales coast of Porthcawl is situated in a wonderful stretch of golfing country. The par 71 Championship Links course has hosted County, National and International events for both amateurs and professionals. Glorious views and historic associations adorn this undulating course with its natural hazards of hillocks, valleys and towering dunes.

5. Royal Porthcawl Golf Club

Once described as being one of the twelve finest courses in the world by the late Tom Scott, a leading writer on golf and former editor of Golf Illustrated. Since his day further improvements have been made to the course, developments which keep Royal Porthcawl firmly among the world's top golf courses. The status of the course is sustained by the many prestigious professional and amateur events held at the club over the years.

6. Southerndown Golf Club

A prestigious links style championship course with undulating fairways and tight lies. Southerndown's location adds spectacular views to the pleasure of the golfing experience. Bracken and gorse punish wayward shots and the wind challenges the golfer to use all his experience. As Peter Allis says, "One of the finest tests of golf in Wales!"
